

Friends of Lower Providence
Citizens of Lower Providence Township working together for better communities.

PUBLIC PROGRAM

“Preserving Historic Resources in Lower Providence – Keeping Our Township Unique”

Mary Lou McFarland, President
The Conservancy of Montgomery County

6:30 PM

Tuesday, April 21, 2009

Lower Providence Community Library Community Room

Friends of Lower Providence invite the public to participate in identifying and protecting sites of historic and cultural value and focus on strategies for historic preservation. Ms. McFarland will present an overview of preservation and lead a discussion on projects for citizen involvement citing examples from other municipalities in Montgomery County.

Pre-registration through www.friendsflowerprovidence.org is encouraged but not required.